

Originally Published: September 19, 2011

 Recommend 29

 retweet 6

Fall Hoops Classic recap

Arizona commit Grant Jerrett, Shabazz Muhammad stand out at the West Coast event

By Joel Francisco
ESPN Recruiting
Archive

 Email  Print  Comments

HARBOR CITY, Calif. -- The Fullcourt Press Fall Hoops Classic ended on Sunday with a rugged championship game between two defensive-oriented squads in California Supreme and Long Beach Poly. California Supreme defeated the Jackrabbits 53-46 behind a relentless 20-point performance from its 6-foot-5 left-hander Daddy Ugbede (Gardena, Calif./Serra). Both teams didn't shoot particularly well, but they demonstrated that suffocating defense can make up for a cold shooting night. Roschon Prince, a 6-foot-5 junior wing-type, led the Jackrabbits with 18 points.

Standout players

Grant Jerrett

(La Verne, Calif./Lutheran)

2012, PF, 6-foot-8, 210 pounds

College : Arizona

Jerrett was scintillating throughout the event, especially his dominating all-around performance against nationally-acclaimed Bishop Gorman. He was as

Notes

- San Diego All Stars have a Division I sleeper backcourt in 6-3 junior Xavier Williams (San Diego, Calif./Cathedral Catholic) and 6-2 Brynton Lamar (San Diego, Calif./St. Augustine). The chiseled Williams is very explosive in the open court and he affects the game at both ends due to his assertiveness. Lamar is a combo-guard who can score off the dribble or drop off the assist.